1. I am a registrar in the Accident and Emergency Department at the Templetown General Hospital. At 1.45pm on 16th November (y-1), I saw Martin Lewison.

2. He told me that he had been stabbed by a man in a pub during an argument. He had a 1 cm laceration to his right hand immediately beneath the knuckle under the middle finger on the right hand.

3. The laceration was treated with steristrips. Mr Lewison was discharged, and no follow-up was required.

Signed....Louise May
