Dear Sir or Madam,

I write this reference at the request of one of our waiters, Robert Price, who I gather is to be sentenced by you.

I am deeply shocked to hear of Robert's actions. He is a mature and sensible person most of the time and he has never behaved in a violent way to my knowledge. He is always cheerful and helpful at work and is polite and friendly to customers.

He has worked for me in my restaurant for nearly 2 years. I will continue to employ him whatever the outcome of the court hearing.

He is a decent man, I believe, who should be given a chance, if possible.

Yours faithfully,

GLORIA PROUDFOOT M.A (Cantab) Proprietor
